

Chasing Rivers with the Kimmels

Please join us for a fascinating evening as geographer Dr. Jim Kimmel and photographer Jerry Touchstone Kimmel share with us their adventures from a lifetime of studying, photographing, teaching, & writing about rivers.

They are the author and photographer of The San Marcos: A Rivers Story & Exploring The Brazos, Texas A&M University Press. Exploring The Brazos was given the Globe Book Award for Public Understanding of Geography by the Association of American Geographers.

“Chasing Rivers . . . dynamic living systems we can never capture”

Tuesday ~ November 12 ~ 7pm
A&M Agri-Life Building ~ 95 Frederick Rd ~ Fredericksburg

This special presentation hosted by:
Friends of the Fredericksburg Nature Center and co-sponsored by:

Hill Country Land Trust ~ Friends of Enchanted Rock ~ Hill Country Alliance ~ NPSOT Hill Country Chapter
For more information contact: jcrone@austin.rr.com

Jerry Kimmel earned degrees in biology & art from Baylor University & Texas State University & taught for many years at Laguna Gloria Art School in Austin. Jim Kimmel holds degrees in ecology and geography from Baylor, Yale and University of Texas. He is professor Emeritus at Texas State University, where he has taught for 22 years.

Please Join Us!!