

REGISTER NOW!

Join the Hill Country Alliance for our Annual Leadership Summit

A Vision for the Hill Country

September 24, 2015

At the Admiral Nimitz Museum in Fredericksburg, TX

With Featured Keynote Speaker

Bob Yaro

Visiting Professor, University of Texas School of Architecture; Professor of Practice in City & Regional Planning, University of Pennsylvania;
President Emeritus and Senior Advisor at the Regional Plan Association in New York

Investigating the full range of the land and resource conservation tools to protect the Hill Country's most important resources

ADDITIONAL PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

State Representative Andy Murr: Rising to Leadership in the Hill Country.

Roel Lopez, Director of Texas A&M Institute of Renewable Natural Resources: Texas Land Trends - What's happening on the land in the Texas Hill Country and where are we headed?

Robert Mace, Deputy Executive Administrator for Water Science and Conservation, Texas Water Development Board: Water for the Hill Country: Who, What, and When?

Ken Kattner, Landowner, Putman Mountain Observatory: Hill Country Dark Sky Reserve: A place for all of us under the starry nights of the Texas Hill Country.

Con Mims, Executive Director of the Nueces River Authority: Incredible Hill Country Rivers and what makes them uniquely "ecologically significant?"

Joe Black, Rail Director for the Lone Star Rail Project: Changing the way Central Texas lives and moves!

Sarah Richards, Former Executive Director of the Colorado River Alliance, Water Program Officer, Cynthia and George Mitchell Foundation: Engaging the Next Generation.

Early bird rate: $45

Standard Registration: $55

Registration deadline: Sept. 18

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER NOW!

Early Bird Registration Ends July 31

Summit Program

9am-3:30pm

Networking Reception

3:30pm-5:30pm