Representative Zwiener holds a Bachelor of Science in Natural Resource Conservation and a Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing.

Terry Wilson

Texas House of Representatives, District 20

Colonel Terry Wilson is a lifelong conservative Republican, committed husband and father, and a decorated combat veteran. Representative Wilson recently retired from the Army after serving over 30 years and was elected as State Representative for House District 20. He holds a BS in Business Administration from Texas A&M University and an MS in Strategic Logistics Plans and Management from the Air War University.

Don Durden

Kendall County Commissioner, Precinct 4

Don Durden earned a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from Texas A&M and founded Civil Engineering Consultants (CEC). While at CEC, he served as the lead planner for the Historic San Antonio Mission Trails Projects and led the design team for the rehabilitation of the San Antonio River Walk between Houston Street and Lexington Avenue. In 2014, he retired from CEC, and is currently the County Commissioner for Precinct 4 in Kendall County.

Lon Shell

Hays County Commissioner - Precinct 3

Lon Shell was appointed Hays County Commissioner for Precinct Three in October 2017. Prior to his appointment, Shell served as Hays County's Chief of Staff for seven years and worked closely with previous Commissioner Will Conley to coordinate major county projects. He serves on the Vision 2020 Steering Committee for the Greater San Marcos Partnership, an initiative to improve the County's economy through job growth and successful small businesses.

Jennifer Walker

Senior Program Manager, National Wildlife Federation

Jennifer Walker is the Senior Program Manager for Water Programs at the National Wildlife Federation and has over 15 years experience focusing on statewide water policy issues. She is Vice-Chair of Austin's Water Forward Task Force and also serves on the Board of Directors of the Alliance for Water Efficiency. Walker has a BS in Ecology, Evolution and Conservation Biology from the University of Texas at Austin.

Ernest Cook

Land/Water Associates

Ernest Cook is a consultant in land conservation and parks, specializing in planning, conservation finance and grant-making. In his more than 20 years as conservation director of the Trust for Public Land, Cook established a public finance program and the Trust supported the dedication of over $70 billion in state and local government funds to parks and conservation. Cook is a graduate of Harvard College and New York University's Wagner School of Public Service.

Chet Garner - Keynote Speaker

Chet Garner is the creator, host, and executive producer of The Daytripper, an 8-time Emmy-award-winning Texas travel show airing on PBS stations across the country. After earning a degree in Radio-Television-Film from the University of Texas at Austin, graduating first in his class from Baylor Law School, and spending 3 years practicing law, Garner followed his passions into the television world.

Dr. Angela Speck

Chair of Physics and Astronomy, University of Texas San Antonio

Angela Speck is a Professor and Chair of Physics & Astronomy at the University of Texas at San Antonio. She is also Co-Chair of the National Total Solar Eclipse Task Force, which works to prepare the nation for the total solar eclipse that will occur in 2024. Dr. Speck's academic career exemplifies the need for synergy between research, teaching, and service. She has a doctorate in Astronomy from University College London.

Katherine Romans

Executive Director, Hill Country Alliance

Katherine Romans brings a decade of nonprofit and legislative experience to the Hill Country Alliance, where she manages the implementation of strategic and collaborative conservation across 17 counties. Romans worked on national and international natural resource issues as a legislative aide for the Committee on Natural Resources within the U.S. House of Representatives. Romans holds a B.A. from the University of Virginia and a Master of Environmental Management from the Yale School of Forestry & Environmental Studies.
