

PLANNING FOR GROWTH IN COMAL COUNTY

Hosted By:

Two-Day Conference & Workshop

Thursday February 2nd, 1 – 7 PM

Friday February 3rd, 1 – 5 PM

McKenna Event Center 801 West Antonio Street, New Braunfels

Comal County is experiencing incredible population growth and development pressures. Expert presenters will explore topics including open space preservation, stewardship of water resources, and county-wide collaboration. Presentations will be followed by a facilitated workshop to chart the next steps needed to preserve the quality of life and natural beauty of Comal County.
